Sexto response kit 2 - Architecte

Description:

For legal reasons, the use of the SEXTO kit is reserved exclusively for Quebec's education sector personnel. In addition, its use must be the subject of a prior agreement between the police force that serves the territory where the school is located and the Director of Criminal and Penal Prosecutions (DCPP). Please note that an attestation badge will only be attributed to personnel at education institutions in a territory where such an agreement has been concluded. Before completing the training program, it is therefore recommended that you validate this information with your superiors or your police force...

Question 1 - How can I summarize the steps of the Sexto method?

To begin, you must reassure whoever came forward with the information. Then you activate Sexto Protocol by completing the Evaluation Grid. You complete the evaluation grid with everyone who was mentioned as being involved in the incident, or who might have information. You confiscate students phones when you suspect that there are images that represent child pornography on the phones based off the information you gathered. You must decide whether you believe the incident was malicious or impulsive and then act accordingly. If it was malicious, you contact the police right away to carry on the investigation with the instigator. You can continue to complete the Evaluation Grid with others who might have received images to get a complete picture. Whether the incident was malicious or not, you must always contact the police to let them know. They will take care of returning phones to students and completing an education session with the instigator.

Question 2 - What have I learned from the three situations presented?

It's important to complete the Sexto protocol with everyone involved. It's not always easy to judge at what point you stop or don't do the Sexto protocol (eg. parents report incident) or at when the right moment is to call the police and let them take over. I learned that if you think that it is malicious, it is still important to continue sexto protocol with others involved, but let the police take care of the instigator.

Question 3 - Which step do I find the most delicate when applying the Sexto method?

I think it would be difficult to intervene with the instigator, particularly if the incident was malicious. You would have to prepare for yourself for different types of reactions (denial, anger, embarrassment) if they are being accused of something. Even if the police will take over the investigation, you still need to take the phone away, explain the next steps, call parents which can lead to a very emotional and difficult scenario for everyone involved.
