COLLOQUE | Competency 1: Let's talk about it !

Description:

Join us for the annual conference for English as a second language teachers, dedicated to developing Competency 1: To interact orally in English. C1: Let’s talk about it is a training day crafted to empower English teachers to reinforce, practice and effectively teach oral interaction skills in their classrooms. How can we engage students in meaningful oral interactions? How can we teach students effective strategies to participate in exchanges and build a coherent message? What activities can make their learning more authentic and significant?
Participate in discussions on planning, differentiation and evaluation in a collaborative workshop setting. Throughout the day, we will have the opportunity to...

Integrate three pedagogical practices related to C1 as soon as I come back to school. Identify your actions and explain your choices.

Intergrate a digital way of collecting traces to evaluate student oral interactions.
Provide various prompts at the beginning of classes to provoke student oral interaction.
Integrate AI to help me provide prompts for student debates.

Experiment two new concepts learned in the workshops in the next school year. Identify the new concepts (one for each workshop) and name the changes required to make these changes.

Keeping more traces of student oral interaction through online technology.
Providing prompts at the beginning of class more regularly for students to be able to communicate more.

Develop a better understanding of one element that was discussed during the day. Name the element.

Evaluation. Keeping track of student oral interaction is a challenge. I want to play around with various tools in order to eventually implement the one that feels more comfortable to me.
